PS I recently gave an interview as a participant in an on-line summit called The Essential Oils Revolution Summit. Erica, of Homestead Bloggers Network, introduced me to Dr. Eric Zielinski, one of the two organizers of the Summit. Check it out as . In short, essential oils are natural compounds of aroma that come from many different forms of plants, such as roots, flowers, seeds, and stems. These oils comprise a liquid that is typically distilled from these plant elements. There are a number of misconceptions when it comes to the use of essential oils. Natural remedies are no longer reserved for modern day flower children, thanks to this phenomenon. The essential oils industry in particular is enjoying a revival of sorts, with products that profess to treat everything from hair loss to upset stomachs.
