How can the answer be improved? Tell us how. Musical expression is the art of playing or singing with a personal response to the music. At a practical level, this means making appropriate use of dynamics, phrasing, timbre and articulation to bring the music to life. Composers may specify these aspects of expression to a greater or lesser extent in the notation of their musical score. Musical expression, that element of musical performance which is something more than mere notes. Western music is notated on a system that specifies pitch and the relative lengths of notes. Factors such as speed or dynamics are usually indicated only by words or abbreviations.

COLLOCATIONS Meaning 4: when you put feeling or emotion into the music that you are making or into your acting phrases a means of expression Art is not just a means of expression, it is also a means of communication. a form of expression Music and painting are two completely different forms of expression. adjectives poetic/literary.

For students who enjoy a little extra push, there are competition opportunities available for Expressions students through the American Guild of Music. AGM competitions cater to students of all ages, levels, and instruments, and our students who participate always feel excited and motivated to practice and compete again the next year.

Early music (on oboe, mostly baroque music) tends to require a more creative approach: the notes on the page do not exactly describe what the music will sound like. Matters of tempo, articulation, orchestration, even pitches, are often left to the performer to determine.
