Promise Me Always is the first book from author Kari March. She has written a book with wonderful characters and an in-depth story line. If you love the books that have characters that are broke but looking for love with a sexy twist this book is well worth the time and money. Promise Me Always is a friends to lovers' story; it's a story that exposes what the lack of communication and the lack of self worth can do to a relationship. What will draw readers to the story are the realistic issues that Blake and Tessa face both individually and as a couple.4/5.
