In Green Bay Tree, Louis Bromfield creates several women who personify the extremes of the female personality. While they are a bit cartoonish, they are interesting and difficult to discount. Lily is the voluptuous one, meant to be a lover, and prefers living in, where else, France. Mar 08, The book, The Green Bay Tree, was an instant critical and popular success. Bromfield made enough money off that first book to move his family to Paris where he wrote full time and ran in the same circles as other famous Lost Generation writers/5. The Green Bay Tree is a three-act drama written by Mordaunt Shairp that explores a "half-suggested homosexual relationship" between a man and his protege or, in the words of one critic "a rich hot-house sybarite" and someone "he adopted at a tender age and has reared in emasculating luxury". Written by: Mordaunt Shairp.

Jun 12, The Green Bay Tree is the authors first published novel (). For a first work, its scope aims towards the grand, encompassing the industrial revolution in the Midwest, a World War in France, and, to a lesser extent, truly knowing oneself.
