This list of the greatest spy shows also includes pictures from the shows when available. Popular spy TV shows have been a staple of television for years, so there's often debate about what the most entertaining spy show of all time is. 1. The Spy; or, A Tale of the Neutral Ground by James Fenimore Cooper () A factually-based account of the exploits of Harvey Birch, a secret agent in the American War of Independence.

In my opinion, the Gabriel Allon series is the best thriller series out there. "The English Spy" contains everything that fans have come to expect from a Daniel Silva novel: crisp and intelligent writing, wonderful characters, great use of setting and location, an intriguing story line inspired by real-life current events and, of course, non-stop action/5(61).
